

THEATRICAL DANCE INSTRUCTOR / CHOREOGRAPHER

Saltwater Performing Arts in St. Marys, Georgia is seeking creative and dynamic teaching artists for seasonal freelance opportunities. We have an immediate need for qualified teachers in the field of dance, specifically to work with our Junior (elementary) troupe.

Teaching Artists will possess the following:

- Ability to teach using various dance styles and methodologies to all levels including beginners, with a focus on musical theatre
- Engage encourage and motivate students
- Evaluate student performance and make recommendations for improvement
- Choreograph routines and/or utilize routines provided
- Adjust routines for production numbers to meet the level of student performing them
- Conduct group lessons for classes varying in size from 5-30 participants
- Provide a fun and creative environment
- Ability to communicate with diverse groups of students, teachers and parents
- Strong dedication to established work commitments
- Commitment to providing high quality theater / dance education with focus on skills building and content
- Strong collaborator and team player
- Excellent communication skills
- Energetic, creative and flexible
- Demonstrates patience and possess leadership skills

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in dance or musical theatre or 2 years teaching experience in dance
- Ability to pass a drug screening and background check

Please submit the following to admin@saltwaterpac.org :

- This is a part-time, paid, Independent Contractor position
- Resume highlighting both performing artist and arts education experience
- Cover letter in which you define your philosophy of arts education and describe your personal teaching style. Please specify what fields(s) and age group(s) you are most qualified to teach.