

A Very Camden Christmas Auditions

This is a Christmas revue with a special flair! We would like all different talents from the community to join us on stage and put on a show that illustrates all Camden County has to offer in it's incredible entertainment offerings. We are looking for diversity in talents and participation. Come on out and show us what you've got!

Creative Team:

Writer/Director/Choreographer: Sophia Rose Loveday

Director/Musical Director: Megan Friese-Kaufman

Participation Requirement Levels:

Level 1: These would be actors, singers and dancers that will narrate the review throughout the performance and will be in an opening number and a finale. These participants will be required to be at the 7 rehearsals on the rehearsal schedule and all 3 performances. You will prepare for the audition process below.

Level 2: You are a person or group that has an act already prepared for all 3 performances. You can come in on the audition date with your group or as a single person or you send in a video submission.

Level 3: You are a person or group that has an act already prepared but can only commit to 1 or 2 performances. You can come in on the audition date with your group or as a single person or you send in a video submission.
