

Teaching Artist opportunity:

Saltwater Performing Arts in St. Marys, Georgia is seeking creative and dynamic teaching artists for part-time, and seasonal freelance opportunities. We are looking for qualified teachers in the fields of acting, improvisation and musical theater to teach weekly classes, facilitate workshops and provide arts instruction.

Classes are offered to elementary, middle and high school students. Please specify what fields(s) and age group(s) you are most qualified to teach.

Teaching Artists will possess the following:

- Experience in theater arts: musical theater dance, acting, playwriting, theater improvisation, vocal coaching and musical theater singing.
- BA, BS or BFA in Theatre, Music, Education, or any equivalent combination of training and experience
- 2+ years of experience working in education organization
- Strong dedication to established work commitments
- Ability to develop lesson plans and curriculum outlines for classes taught
- Commitment to providing high quality theater education with focus on skills building and content
- Strong collaborator and team player

Please submit the following to admin@saltwaterpac.org :

- Resume highlighting both performing artist and arts education experience
- Cover letter in which you define your philosophy of arts education, describe your personal teaching style and state 3-5 core objectives for your classes
- Example of a lesson plan for a 60-minute class in your discipline.
